

Excellence in short stay surgery

BADS Annual Scientific Meeting

17-18 June 2010

Portsmouth

PROGRAMME HIGHLIGHTS

Outcome Measures for Day Surgery

Paulo Lemos (President, International Association for Ambulatory Surgery)

Scarless Laparoscopic Single Port Surgery

Barry Paraskeva (Imperial College, London)

Day Surgery and the Enhanced Recovery Programme

Alan Robson (Deputy Director, Department of Health)

Kerri Houghton and Mike Swart (Torbay)

Iain Jourdan (Guildford)

Lessons for Day Surgery from Camp Bastion, Afghanistan

Major Nick Tarmey (Salisbury)

Debates:

"This House believes that suxamethonium should be consigned to the pharmacological graveyard"
Prof. Rajinder Mirakhur (Belfast) and Dr Mike Nathanson (Nottingham)

"This House believes that staggered admission times should be introduced for all Day Surgery patients"
(TBA)

Workshops and Other Sessions:

Organisational Dilemmas in Pre-Assessment. Anna Lipp (Norwich)

Teamwork in Day Surgery and enhancement of Patient Safety. Diane Gilmour (President, AfPP)

How to use the Procedure Directory. Ian Jackson (York) and Mark Skues (Chester).

Conference Dinner and Live Music Thursday 17th June

Call for Abstracts: Deadline for Submission, 30th March, 2010

More information on the website: www.bads.co.uk